I think I will just write this as a separate piece someday. No, it's not about Vikings or buried gold... or anything of that nature. I'll have to explain it later. I think, but who knows)Can This Guy Fund Me? Hello, my name is Matthew and I am a father of 3 and I have been saved since I was a teenager. Recently, my company was hit by the first of 5 recessions and I feel like I have been through the ringer. I've lost my job and my mortgage is in excess of $26,000 so I need a short term loan to keep my house. I have a credit card that is charged to my work's checking account and I have about $23,000 in equity on my house so any loan that is between $5000-$8000 would be greatly appreciated. Thank you. Make sure you explain that you have a FICO score of 750-800, so your likelihood for a cash advance is high. You also explain that you know it is an unusually high amount of money, but it is needed by you. They will check your debts-credit card in particular-and verify your income and savings, and then approve or deny you. You have a good chance of receiving the loan. This fund is not a simple online fund, it is an actual investment fund backed by the local United States government. It is similar to US Savings Bonds, or Treasury Inflation Protected Securities (TIPS), in that you have to pay an annual fee to the government to participate in the fund. This is a good way to invest for retired veterans, those with disabilities, college students, and anyone who wants to save, but
