professionals. When you're in the business of selling your advertising media, it's essential to think of your business like a private club. You need the membership card for admission to the club. You need to know what the club has to offer, so you can convince your prospects to join.

Your pitch needs to take into consideration the experience of the members of that club. You don't want to come out with a sales pitch that is completely unconnected with what the other members are pitching. I'll admit it. I've seen a lot of presentation techniques employed at various shows over the years. Some of them are highly effective. For me, some of the better ones are: 1. Be clear. Be concise. 2. Build on the strengths of the other presenter's content. 3. Be positive, but not flip. 4. Don't be a salesperson. 5. Be
